Dear Sir:

I would like to complete my set of interest payment notes of Connecticut and you indicate that you have five different denominations. I only have three and I would like to buy any which are not hole cancelled.

If you have one of each denomination which are slit cancelled, would you send them to me.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Slopak:

If the $10 interest notes of Connecticut only come holed, you better send me one.

If I happen to be on vacation when it arrives there will be a delay on all of the notes. I want to give a friend of mine an opportunity to buy most of them and presume you will not mind.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Slopak:

I am so sorry that I did not get to see you when you were in St.Louis and I appreciate the fact that you called me up.

I am enclosing a check to cover six of the interest notes which you left with me and I am returning five of them. I appreciate the opportunity you gave me to buy them.

I am preparing my talk for the Atlanta convention.

I am sorry that the one character you ran into in St.Louis irritated you. I don't think I have been in his store for 20 years. It makes you appreciate nice people all the more.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Kimman:

Very I missed you in St Louis. I had my collection of varieties with me
to show you.

I attended the Cain

money in St Louis.

Your Mr Morton is certainly a cranky, miserable granch. Uncivil and discautious.
What makes some people that way?

There are far more varieties than I had expected - and more turning up continuously.

I checked another dealer's stock today rather haphazardly and found fine pieces I had not had.

Now - most of these notes are hole canceled - (all of the ten pound).

Since you want only slit canceled - I can send you maybe ten pieces in different denominations & signers at 1²⁵ each. If you want hole canceled - you can get many varieties.

Please advise.

Dear Mr. Slopak:

I am working on a revision of Early Paper Money of America, and I am bringing it up to the year 1800.

I would like to know from you if you have any bank notes from any of the banks of Connecticut issued before 1800 and, if so, a xerox copy would be most appreciated.

You will recall that there are many Connecticut items which I had not construed to be money and which were in the nature of securities or non-circulating items. I would like to review that with you as you have no doubt studied the matter for a long time. If you feel that any particular item should be included, I would like to have you express your thoughts.

Would you be nice enough to let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
